

The Runaround of Absolute Finality

Start in Lobby 10.

Head past the glass dollar bill.

~At the new lab to the left, note the color of the stripe at the bottom of SAM 30.

Climb the final staircase.

~Note the name of the artist who was inspired by snakes.

Go in the direction of the chill water supply.

Descend at the dancing molecules.

Take a trip by mushrooms.

After the golden celebration, turn right.

~Just before you turn, note a primary goal of MIT according to William Barton Rogers.

Your progress will be verified before you are allowed to continue.
