Topics for Paper #1: due Wednesday 7 March 2001, in class. These papers are to be 5-7 pp. in length, typewritten and double-spaced. Choose one topic; you may write on one or more of the books/films in the introduction to, and first section of, the course. Please keep a copy of your paper for your files.

1. What is the relation of children or young people to adults in the work we've considered to date, and how does that affect our understanding of management?
2. What do the characters in these assignments regard as their duty or responsibility? What relation does the fulfilment of that duty bear to happiness?
3. What is leadership for the authors/directors in these first six assignments, and how does that determine our understanding of and expectations for people's behavior in organizations?
