

GaMIT Agenda
16 September 2010

Developed by: Joubert Glover
Edited by: Anthony Farrell

Number of Attendees: 12

Bugg: Word. I's VP Technology.

Joubert: We think about GaMIT, and I'm still curious as to what it is, and what it is going to be in the future. Basically, I want to increase membership and activities with each year. That's the general progression I see, and for each year, we decide what we want to do. Let's talk about what we want this year.

Topics:

- Introduction of Present Officers
- What is GaMIT? What will it be for AY2010-2011

Lucas: Let's do something for Day of Silence

Mataeux: Last year we hung up a flag in Lobby seven, and we handed out flyers and such.

Justin & Joubert: And we chaked in the rain.

Joubert: A couple people walked around with tape on their mouths. We had a group together out in Lobby seven.

Recap: It was cool. Could be bigger.

THE LARAMIE PROJECT!

Joubert: It's a play or movie or something. The first weekend is our provincetown retreat. The next weekend is OUBC.

OUBC!- Out for Undergraduate Business Conference

Mataeux: Workshops, how to be out in the workplace, whether it's a good idea, how to go about it. People who are business majors or other majors are welcome. It's in a beautiful hotel. SHERATON NEXT TO TIMES SQUARE! Dery. So much Deby.

Events:

- "You are loved" Chalking Campaign
- National Coming Out Week
- Social Events
- Activism and Social Justice Points of Interest

YOU ARE LOVED CAMPAIGN!

Doug: Can we do something at midnight and chalk something up?

Joubert: Well, yeah. We can. We can do whatever.

NATIONAL COMING OUT WEEK!

Joubert: We have that Monday off. We could do something.

Bugg: STINGYYYYYYY!

Joubert: Do we want to have an activist event, a social event?

Andy: We could have it all.

Doug: Let's chalk rainbow stripes fanning out from 77 Mass Ave.

Jenna: Oh shiiiiit, vertical surfaces are banned!

Doug: Hairspray makes chalk resistant to rubbing off.

National Coming Out Day Chalking: Doug

Doug: Are we doing the closet door thing?

Joubert: We can.

Justin: Where does one put the closet?

General discussion of Harvard event

Andy: About the recent "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" thing, we could have an event and get some speakers to raise awareness. We could do it at Kresge. YK, a rally.

Andy volunteers to plan it.

Andy: I'm gonna try to get Dan Choi.

DADT Committee: Andy

Party Idea! Gay Pride!

Intercollegiate dance should happen. Someone needs to be the contact person.

Lucas: What would contact person entail?

Making sure that everything on our end is done, we've e-mailed out, gotten interest, figure out a day, figure out who wants to host it. Talking to A.V. if we host it, Etc.

Party Committee: Lucas and Andy will be party contacts. (Along with the social chairs.)

MASQUERADE! MASQUERADE!

Let's get schools' contact infos and make a list.

MARLBORO GSA!

Coming to Boston on Saturday for Dr. Horrible and then RHPS. Hey! Host them if you can! There are about 20 people coming.

We will e-mail out about this.

Late Night: We'll have Gay Nights with dinner before the GaMIT meeting Thursdays and then Late Night until midnight. That way, people will come to the meetings. YAY GAY NIGHTS! (Every two weeks.)

Justin is doing Fierce Forever with Mataeux.

In the spring. Same size as the last Fierce Forever, maybe a bit smaller.

Doug is our official chalker.

October: Coming out Week

November: You Are Loved

Party somewhere in there.

Doug: Ooough. Ooough. I have always wanted to do this.

I forgot which dates they were. But, so. In high school, people really didn't know their gay history, so I planned this event that never happened. For the Stonewall anniversary, we could have a water balloon fight, and you're either in drag or a police man.

LGBT Water balloon fight!

NEXT YEAR! CPW!
