No. 5 - Climbing Over Rocky Mountain

Sir Arthur Sullivan

Solo

Sopranos

Altos

Tenors

Basses

Piano

Allegro grazioso (\( \approx 120 \))

Solo

Sopranos

Altos

Tenors

Basses

Piano
Climbing over rocky mountain, skipping river and fountain, passing where the willows quiver, passing where the willows quiver.
Climb the heart-y lads and lasses, Til the mountain-top they gain. Scaling rough and rugged passes,
Solo
Sopranos
Altos
Tenors
Basses
Piano

60
nug ged pas ses, Climb the heart y lads and las ses, Til the moun tain-

65
top they gain.

top they gain.

top they gain.

top they gain.

f

p Tenor soloist:

Solo Sopranos Altos Tenors Basses Piano

Fill the 71

Solo Sopranos Altos Tenors Basses Piano

cup and tread the measure Make the most of fleeting leisure. Hail it

78
as a true ally
Though it perish by and by.

Ev'ry moment brings a treasure
Of its...
Though the moments quickly die,

Greet them gaily as they fly. Greet them gaily as they fly.
Solo Sopranos Altos Tenors Basses Piano

mo-ments quick-ly die, Greet them gai-ly as they fly!

mo-ments quick-ly die, Greet them gai-ly as they fly!

mo-ments quick-ly die, Greet them gai-ly as they fly!

mo-ments quick-ly die, Greet them gai-ly as they fly!

Far a-way from grief and care, High up

Contralto soloist:
in the mountain air, Let us live and reign alone,

In a world that's all our own. Here enthroned
Solo

Sopranos

Altos

Tenors

Basses

Piano

in the sky, Far a - way from mor - tal eye, We'll be gods and make de - cree, Those may ho - nour them who please.

Fill the gods and make decrees, Those may honour them who please.

Fill the gods and make decrees, Those may honour them who please.

Fill the gods and make decrees, Those may honour them who please.

Fill the gods and make decrees, Those may honour them who please.
cup and tread the measure. Make the most of fleeting leisure.

Hail it as a true ally. Though it perish, bye and bye.
Solo

Sopranos

Hail it as a true ally - Though it perish bye and bye.

Altos

Hail it as a true ally - Though it perish bye and bye.

Tenors

Hail it as a true ally - Though it perish bye and bye.

Basses

Hail it as a true ally - Though it perish bye and bye.

Piano

Fill the cup and tread the measure - Make the most of fleeting leisure. Hail it as a true ally, a