Thespis No. 6

Once knew a chap who discharged a function on the North South East West Middlesex Junction.

And sang little songs to the engine drivers. 'Twas

In course of time there spread a rumour - That he did all this from a sense of humour. So instead of signalling and stoiking, They gave themselves up to a course of jo-king. When ever they knew that he was riding. They shunted his train on a lonely siding, or stopped all night in the middle of a tunnel, on the plea that the boiler was coming through the fun nel. ‘Twas told to me with great compunction, By
